

Affordable, Flexible, Accessible Credit Monitoring Solution

In an era of rapid change, determining the creditworthiness of customers can be tricky. For companies selling internationally, distinguishing a good customer from a potentially bad one is even more difficult. At Coface, our credit information services are designed to help businesses make wise credit decisions. Choose from opinions and assessments resulting from Coface's credit analysis, as well as credit reports — all in one convenient package.

Debtor Risk Assessments

The Coface Debtor Risk Assessment (DRA) measures the probability that a company will default over a 12-month period, helping you determine whether a customer is an acceptable or a high risk.

Advantages

Using Debtor Risk Assessments can benefit your credit management department in several ways.

- Focus on Your Critical Risks
- Standard Scale Worldwide
